Miss Cambria County Scholarship Pageant Seeks Contestants

Johnstown, Pa -- Father and Daughter Team are excited to bring Miss Pennsylvania Preliminary pageants to Cambria County. Paul and Ronnie Weaver, Directors of the pageant are enthusiastic to bring a Miss Pennsylvania Preliminary and Miss Cambria County Outstanding Teen Preliminary to this area. This past year Cambria County had there very own Miss Pennsylvania, Victoria Bechtold of Johnstown. The new Miss Cambria County and Miss Cambria County Outstanding Teen to be announced November 12, 2005 at Forest Hills High School in Sidman, will compete for the title of Miss Pennsylvania and Miss Pennsylvania Outstanding Teen in the Summer of 2006. The winner of Miss Pennsylvania goes on to compete for the title of Miss America. Miss America is one of the leading scholarship pageants for women ages 17-24. The winner of Miss Pennsylvania Outstanding Teen ages 13-17(17 year olds must be no more than a junior in high school, not a senior) will go on to compete for the title of Miss America Outstanding Teen. The teen pageant is also part of The Miss America Organization. Contestants in the pageant are judged in talent, interview, eveningwear, casual wear and swimsuit.

The new Miss Cambria County title holders will compete for scholarships and prizes awarded by the generosity of local businesses and organizations throughout Cambria County.
